Employes of the Third and Second avenue surface lines, the only transit systems in Manhattan unaffected by the strike, voted to quit their jobs last night. Their action took effect immediately, and a swarm of eager pickets poured from the meeting halls to stop the red cars and the blue.

Frederick W. Whitridge, head of the Third Avenue company and identified with the Union Railways Company, in The Bronx, and the Westchester County lines, where the strike of a month ago started, was scored in a resolution read to the 3,000 employes of the Third Avenua line who met in Lyceum Hall, at Eighty-sixth Street-and Third Avenue. Employes of the Union Railways Company and Westchester trolley lines were in the audience and cheered.

STRIKE VOTE BRINGS JOY.

In the midst of the meeting at Lyceum Hall word came car. No one succeeded in eatthing its that the Second Avenue men, meeting in Mozart Hall, at 334 East Eighty-sixth Street, had voted for a strike.

Hats soared to the ceiling, chairs were shivered on the floor, and the building rocked to the roar of approval.

TWENTY-FOUR-HOUR STRIKE.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will arrive to-day and take command of the strike situation. Immediately he will call the first of a series of Berlin, Sept. 10.—"King Ferdinand of conferences, which may result, the strike leaders predict, in an Bulgaria," says an official statement order calling upon every one of the 750,000 union men in the city to walk out in sympathy with the car men. A general industrial strike for twenty-four hours, extending over all New York, is proposed.

This call for help is the trump which the "broken" Amalgamated Association of Electric and Street Railway Employes Chauffeur's Neck Broken and Unknown has been holding in reserve. William B.
